Hundred Days - Wikipedia

It was more than a hundred days. That's one thing I learned from this book. For some reason, I'd always assumed that the hundred days meant the period from Napoleon escaping exile on Elba to his defeat at Waterloo, but the official Hundred Days actually runs from 20 March 1814, when Napoleon entered Paris to resume his rule of France, to 8 July 1814, when Louis XVIII was officially restored ...
