Mike Rose Published by The New Press ISBN

978-1595589385 The New Press has just issued Why School? Reclaiming Education for All of Us in paperback, and I used the occasion to significantly revise the original. As with the original, the new edition offers, to the best of my ability, a humanistic and democratic rationale for education in America, K–12 through college and adult school—a different version than that in reigning technocratic, economistic education policy.
