Read it from cover to cover, initially thought it was an okay book, however I then saw Steve Cohen perform and it was really not my cup of tea. So it made me think that he writes a good book but doesn't in my opinion practice what he preaches.. I feel there are far better performers out there who really understand how to win the crowd.

In becoming a top magician, Steve Cohen has also become a master salesperson and communicator. In Win the Crowd, it's fascinating to see how he's drilled down into the ways he influences an audience, and how that can extrapolated into our daily conversations. Some of his techniques are quite sophisticated and require some time and practice, but that's half the fun.
