Books similar to Wool: The Graphic Novel - Goodreads

Wool was an incredibly short, but mind gripping and horrifying post-apocalyptic story about humans and survival at any cost! Hugh Howey scored MAJOR points in my 'dystopia' appetite! I've been craving post-apocalyptic novels, ever since I've re-read Stephen King's earth shattering The Stand .

Wool (Wool, #1) by Hugh Howey - Goodreads

The Wool Omnibus is actually a collection of five novellas connecting the action, a serialization of an ongoing storyline. The setting reminds me of the Zion population in the Wachowski Matrix films, an isolated, encased and quarantined populace.

Order of Hugh Howey Books - OrderOfBooks.com

Wool, the book, is one of the best books I've ever read. I read all the comments for the graphic novel and despite all the bad things I've read I wanted to give this one a try. Have I mentioned that the book was amazing? Well, the comic is not. It could have been really good, but there is just not enough room for character or story development.

Some of my fondest memories of my parents, before they divorced, was spending Friday night as a family. After dinner we would go to ROBIN's bookstore. Mom was into Army and romance (really telling my age) comic books. I started reading WOOL the novel before discovering the graphic novel sample. Enjoyed it so much that I preordered the full version.
