Matthew 25:31-46 – Sermon Writer

In Christology, the Logos (Greek: ?????, lit. 'word, discourse, or reason') is a name or title of Jesus Christ, seen as the pre-existent second person of the Trinity. The concept derives from John 1:1, which in the Douay–Rheims, King James, New International, and other versions of the Bible reads: . In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

No other person is more identified with the Reformation than Martin Luther. Luther's work, including his Ninety-Five Theses—which he nailed to the door of the Wittenberg Church in 1517—is credited with helping to spark the Protestant Reformation and laying the foundation for the Lutheran church. Now, Logos Bible Software has partnered with Fortress Press and Concordia Publishing House to ...

Introduction The previous survey of the first seventeen books (Law and History), Genesis through Nehemiah, covered the whole history of the Old Testament. All the remaining books, Poetical and Prophetical, fit somewhere into the history of those seventeen books. The next section covered, the Poetical, is a much smaller section consisting of five books—Job, Psalms, Proverbs ...
