Overall, I would say that this is a fun puzzle to frustrate novices with, but is too easy for a moderately serious solver of hidden mechanism puzzles. You are paying for the quality and precision of the puzzle here. I haven't tried the YOT II yet, but am somewhat tempted. It is quite a bit more expensive at $60, so that is a bit off-putting.

YOT II - Puzzle Place

I reviewed The Yot a while back, and have been wanting to try The Yot II ever since. It looks quite similar, so I wondered how it would be different. The folks at Puzzle Master were kind enough to sell me a copy at a discount to review. Thanks! The Yot II is a bit thicker than the original YOT, but is otherwise identical.
